My dear Fannie

I got here safely

Saturday night, but found no one at the depot, either here or in Chville, as Kinloch had not read my letter.

Everybody expressed much pleasure at Maria's having got her so good a place.

Think it such a good thing. I hope you will getting on comfortably.

What arrangement did you make about the cows?

I think I shall be able to get some help here in my efforts about the superintendency

from Maria & Evy last night, which troubles me somewhat. I am truly glad to hear that J Brent was with you back. If you feel any uneasiness I will come home at once.

You can write to

Chville on Wednesday next and stay until the following Monday Aug 31
When I expect to go home
I hope the Mail Wagon

that day. If you make any other arrangement
let me know. Hope G
